Preparatory Education

The English preparatory education provided at the School of Foreign Languages at Adiyaman University is conducted in two formats: compulsory and optional.

✓ Education in the preparatory classes is delivered over two semesters, each consisting of 14 weeks, for a total of 28 weeks.

✓ The program is designed based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and is offered at the A1, A2, B1, and B2 levels. Entry and exit levels are planned as follows:

- A1 → B1+
- A2 → B1+
- A1 → B2
- B1 → B2

✓ The courses focus on improving grammar, vocabulary, reading, and writing skills in an interactive and software-supported classroom environment.

Students who successfully complete the preparatory program reach at least the basic user or independent user level, and further reinforce these competencies in the compulsory common foreign language courses.

Examinations and Assessment

Throughout the preparatory program, students are required to take the following examinations:

-  Proficiency Exam – At the beginning of the academic year
-  Placement Test
-  4 Midterm Exams – 10%
-  4 Quizzes – 5%
-  End-of-Year Proficiency Exam – 60%

At the end of each level, students' progress is evaluated in all four skills (reading, writing, listening, speaking).

Compulsory Common Foreign Language Courses (YD 101 – YD 102)

- YD 101: Offered in the fall semester – Exit level: A1
- YD 102: Offered in the spring semester – Exit level: A2

These courses are delivered via the Distance Education System.

Attendance: Active participation in at least 70% of classes is mandatory.

Grading: Midterm (40%) + Final Exam (60%)

Message to the Students of the School of Foreign Languages

Dear Student,

You are progressing steadily towards your goal of becoming a university graduate. The English education you will receive at the School of Foreign Languages this academic year will help you make a strong start to your academic life.
